MARRIED ONE DAY KILLS HIMSELF THE NEXT

Harrison County Man Ends Life on Finding He Cannot Annul Marriage.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., Oct. 29.—Will Hutchinson, aged 52 years, committed suicide in the undertaking establishment of Frisbie & Smith here yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, by shooting himself through the heart, dying almost instantly.

Mr. Hutchinson was in Paris Tuesday and secured a license to marry Mrs. Nan Swinford, of this town, and returned here this morning.

Note Found in His Pocket.

A note found in his pocket gives the reason for his suicide: "My troubles are more than I can bear," and asked that he be buried beside his wife in the cemetery.

Mr. Hutchinson was a farmer of the Connersville neighborhood, where until the death of his wife, he lived and worked.

STORY OF THE MARRIAGE.

PARIS, Ky., Oct. 29.—Married Tuesday to Mrs. Nannie C. Swinford, of Cynthiana, J. W. Hutchinson came here today to consult with attorneys for the purpose of dissolving the matrimonial tie.

Mr. Hutchinson and Mrs. Swinford came here Tuesday afternoon. A marriage license was obtained. They went to the waiting room of the boardman river stable on Bank Row where the Rev. M. T. Chaudron, of the Methodist Church, performed the ceremony.

Hutchinson was a well-to-do Harrison county farmer. He claimed he had, just all of yesterday at the time of Mrs. Swinford, who was very hospitable and that all the parties indulged in drinking, and that when the license was issued and the ceremony performed he was so greatly under the influence of liquor that he did not know what he was doing. Mr. Hutchinson described his return trip to Cynthiana and said that when he awoke this morning his wife asked him what he was going to do and he replied: "I am going to get out of here," and dressing himself took the first train for Paris to get a divorce and file suit for divorce.

MRS. BOWDEN AND HER DAUGHTERS ARE BETTER

Victims of Runaway Accident of Monday Are Reported Out of Danger.

The many friends of the Bowden family will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Bowden and her two daughters, Misses Willa and Nannie, who were in the runaway wreck which occurred Monday afternoon on the Paris pike in which Mr. W. C. Shafer was killed, and the three women painfully cut and bruised, are now out of danger and are doing as well as could be expected. It is reported at the residence Thursday that all rested well during the night and seemed much improved.

The family desires, through the columns of The News, to publicly thank those who rendered assistance at the time of the accident and also to thank those of their friends who have been so kind since the day of the accident.

STEAM ENGINE HAS BEEN INSTALLED.

Burley Tobacco Society Adds Improvement to Plant to Aid in Prizing Tobacco.

A steam engine has been installed in the redrying plant of the Burley Tobacco Society for the purpose of steaming the tobacco so as to put it in a condition to handle. On account of the dry weather, work on prizing the tobacco has been greatly delayed and this process of putting the tobacco in condition is being done so that work on prizing it may continue.

HOT FOOTBALL GAME WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

High School and K. W. C. Preps. Play Fast and Exciting Contest.

The young giants of the two preparatory schools, the City High School and K. W. C. Prep, played a fast and exciting game of football on the College Athletic Field Wednesday afternoon. The game ended unsatisfactorily because of an injury to Quarterback Wasserboehr.

No one being present who could take his place the conclusion of the game was postponed. It will be played off after the next game of the series between these two teams.

Capt. Duty, for Prep., won the toss and chose to defend the uphill goal. Wilcott kicked off for High School. Kelly received ball on ten yard line and returned it to twenty feet, where he was downed. The Preps. then carried the ball down the field by a series of line bucks and two prettily executed forward passes to High School five yard line, when High School held for downs and got the ball. They in their turn kicked and prep. fumbled. Then High School shot play after play through prep. until they reached the prep's three yard line. It was first down and goal to make. Prep. blocked two plays through their line and before the third could be put in motion, Prof. Bosley called time with ball on one yard line.

The Second Half.

Second half High School defended up hill goal. Prep. tried a couple of forward passes and aided by a fumble landed on the High School's five yard line and on the second down Duty went over for a touchdown. He failed to kick a goal.

Score Prep. 5. H. S. 0. After play was resumed the High School Quarterback was hurt; the game was called. It was afterwards learned that Wassaboehr had broken a bone in his wrist.

The line-up was as follows:

| | |
|---------------|--------------------|
| High School | Prep. |
| Bruce | L. E. Jackson |
| Ramsey | L. T. Candler |
| Haggard | L. G. Taylor |
| Thomas | C. Strother |
| Edmonds | R. G. Clark |
| Hodgkin | R. T. R. Ferris |
| Ford | R. E. K. Taylor |
| Wassaboehr | 2. Duty Captain |
| Owen | R. H. B. S. Johns |
| Capt. Hammond | L. H. B. Kelly Day |
| Willcott | F. B. Hayes |

NEITHER SIDE SCORES IN THE BEREA-RICHMOND GAME.

RICHMOND, Ky., Oct. 29.—The first big football game played here this season was fought out between a team from Berea and the local High School. The game was a good one, and after hard struggling it ended in a tie, 0 to 0. The forward pass was used with effect by the Berea men, while straight football was played by the High School team.

I believe in a spade and an acre of good ground. Who cuts a straight path to his own living by the help of God, in the sun and rain and sprouting grain, seems to me a universal working man. He solves the problem of life not for one, but for all men of sound body.—Emerson.

HEADLESS MAN NAMED NOBLE

Is Thought to Be One of the Noble Family From Breathitt County.

The Cincinnati Enquirer has been full of stories of clues about the unidentified headless man found near Covington last Saturday night, and who had a hat bearing the imprint of Vic Bloomfield. Now the Lexington Herald seemingly establishes his identity. It publishes the following story this morning:

"There is a Lexington end to the finding of the headless body in the hills back of Covington that is just now absorbing the interests of the people of the three cities on the banks of the Ohio river.

The body has been identified as that of one of the family of Nobles, of Jackson, Ky., his first name not ascertained, and it seems to have been very clearly established that the last man seen in his company was Farris Simpson, a barber, who, until some five or six weeks ago, was employed in the shop of Charles Reeder on East Main street, near viaduct. Simpson, according to his wife, who was interviewed at the home of her uncle, John R. Martin, 156 Shreve avenue, last night, is now employed in a barber shop at Harrodsburg and is boarding with Mrs. Graves in that city.

Mrs. Simpson Discusses Case.

Mrs. Simpson was not aware that Noble was dead until informed by the reporter.

"I do not know Noble's first name, but he was from Jackson and was a cousin of Jake Noble of Jackson," said Mrs. Simpson. "I first saw him about six weeks ago. He came into Reeder's shop and got a shave one morning.

"Mr. Simpson shaved him and while he was in the chair he said he had served four years in the army and had some money and would like to invest it in a barber shop if he could find the right man to run the shop for him. There was further talk along this line and my husband accepted a proposition from him to open a shop in Georgetown.

Made Trip to Cincinnati.

"Two or three days later they went to Georgetown and picked out a place, then went on to Cincinnati, where an outfit was purchased of the Barber Supply Company in Noble's name.

"In the meantime Noble had told my husband that he had killed a man and a woman in the mountains and that he was afraid he might be arrested. That, he said, was the reason he left Jackson. He said that by going into business at Georgetown he could lay quietly and not be picked up by the officers.

"After the supplies had been purchased in Cincinnati, Noble suddenly disappeared. My husband, thinking that he might have returned to Georgetown, went there. He had not been seen. We came here and Mr. Simpson got the job in Harrodsburg.

Simpson in Lexington Sunday.

"I did not like it there and came back here about a week ago. Mr. Simpson was here Sunday to spend the day and went back to Harrodsburg.

"The finding of Noble's body is news to me and I presume it will be to my husband, for we were under the impression that he had become afraid to stay in Kentucky and had gone off to the army again. I suspect now that he figured that he would be caught for the murder in the mountains and just went out into the hills down there and committed suicide."

FIRE AT WAREHOUSE.

At four o'clock this morning the fire department was called to D. S. Gay's warehouse on North Main street. For a few minutes it seemed as though the whole building would be destroyed, but the fire was extinguished with small loss, which was covered by insurance.

The fire started from a hot journal and rapidly spread through the building.
